ORAL ORDER
(Passed on 12TH June, 2007)

The matter arises out of the order passed by learned Single Judge before whom the order of suspension was under challenge.

We have been informed that during the pendency of this matter the charge-sheet has already been served on the appellant who has even filed his reply.

In the interest of justice it would suffice if the Enquiry Officer would expedite the Departmental Enquiry against the appellant within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of the certified copy of this order by the Enquiry Officer. The appellant is also expected to cooperate in the Departmental Enquiry.

With the observation made above, the appeal stands disposed of.
